

Ownership laws were relaxed years ago, to "increase competition."
Now cos. like ClearChannel own 1/3 of the airwaves and promote a narrow national political agenda by censoring music, bullying small stations, simulating local organization of rallies etc. The FCC must promote diverse ownership and broadcast expression, not monopolies.